A SUGGESTED OUTLINE FOR STUDY AND DISCUSSION SESSIONS
IN THE CONGREGATIONAL DISCERNMENT PROCESS
Diocese of Colorado

The following questions may be helpful for each of the sections. They are intended to assist in opening possible areas of consideration. Most do not have any “right” answers, but are only meant to stimulate thought and discussion.

I. The Church

1. Thanksgiving to God for Parish Life in Christ
 - What does it mean to be God’s chosen people? Chosen for what?
 - How does a group of people become “bound together in love by the one Spirit?” What does this mean?
 - What is the relationship of individual and communal discernment of God’s will for our lives?
 - Why did the disciples on the road to Emmaus not recognize Jesus? What may have gotten in the way? What gets in the way for us?
2. The Ministry of the Laity
 - How have we discerned God’s will for us in our own present vocations?
 - What are our responsibilities as Christians in our present vocations?
 - What gifts do we have that could add to the unity and wholeness of the Body of Christ?
 - How can we be more open to Christ’s presence with us?

II The Ordained Ministry

1. The ordination of a Deacon and a Priest
 - In what way do the ministries of all the baptized, the diaconate and the priesthood differ from one another?
 - What are some indications of being “called” to any particular vocation? To the ordained ministry?
 - What kind of leader is a shepherd? What qualities are needed to be a dictator? To be an example?
2. The Pastoral Ministry
 - What are “pastoral” responsibilities?
 - How can one’s image of God and relationship with God affect pastoral ministry?
 - Is there a difference in the call to pastoral ministry for the laity and the ordained ministry? If so, what is it?

3. The Priesthood

- What makes a priest? What can we learn from Jesus as High Priest about the role of priest?
- Is there a role for priest in areas other than specific “parish work” and if so, in what ways?
- What does it mean, and what difference does it make that it is Christ who chooses us first and not we who first choose Christ?

4. The Diaconate

- What makes a deacon? What can we learn from Jesus as Servant Lord about the ministry of a deacon?
- If we are all called to be engaged in serving others (diakonia), why should deacons be ordained?
- How do deacons carry on Christ’s Servant Ministry?

5. The Cost of Ministry

- How can we differentiate “taking up your cross” and being a self styled martyr (developing a martyr syndrome)? What are the differences in attitude?
- How are Christ’s instructions to the apostles related to taking up one’s cross, surrendering one’s willfulness?
- In what way does the news that we are reconciled make us a new creation? How in our own lives does this good news relate to taking up our own crosses?
- What is the relationship of “taking up your cross” to self-examination and increased self-awareness?

6. The Discipline of Ministry

- In what way do our lives reflect the new covenant of reconciliation?
- How do we reflect God’s place in our lives? How do we feed Christ’s sheep?
- In what way can we prepare ourselves and nourish ourselves for being ministers of the new covenant?

III Prayer and Ministry

1. The Prayer of Union

- With whom (or what) do we desire to become united in prayer of union?
- What are some ways we can open ourselves to, or increase our awareness of, the presence of God, Christ, within us?
- In what way can the prayer of silence, non-verbal or listening prayer be a prayer of union – with God – with others?

2. Prayer for One Another

- What are some ways we recognize the Holy Spirit within others, within creation, within ourselves?
- How can we increase our awareness of the needs of others, rather than our own projections of what we think they need?
- What are various types of intercessions used in your own verbal or non-verbal prayer for others, and for yourself? What has been most helpful?

3. The Faithfulness of God

- In what way can “sitting in solitude and silence” increase awareness of God’s faithfulness, God’s love?
- What are some of the ways we learn how to trust in God?
- What are some of the experiences you have had which have increased your faith and trust in God?
